getting it right
for every child
in Lanarkshire
Getting it right for every child in Lanarkshire
Why GIRFEC?
Moving away from...

Education

Social Work

Adult Services

Health
Moving towards...
To establish a GettinG it right for every child practice approach across Lanarkshire

To establish a single children’s services system based on an integrated framework of developing children and young people’s well-being

To progress cultural change which supports the successful implementation of GIRFEC
Practice Model and Core Components of Getting it Right

Well-being

Assessment
Appropriate, Proportionate, Timely

Planning Action & Review

Gathering Information & Analysis

Observing & Recording

Adversity
Resilience

Protective Environment
Vulnerability

Well-being

Observing & Recording

Gathering Information & Analysis

Planning Action & Review

Assessment
Appropriate, Proportionate, Timely

Well-being

Observing & Recording

Gathering Information & Analysis

Planning Action & Review

Assessment
Appropriate, Proportionate, Timely

Well-being

Observing & Recording

Gathering Information & Analysis

Planning Action & Review

Assessment
Appropriate, Proportionate, Timely

Well-being
Questions for every practitioner

1. What is getting in the way of this child’s well-being?
2. Do I have all the information I need to help this child?
3. What can I do now to help this child?
4. What can my agency do to help this child?
5. What additional help, if any may be needed from others?
Lanarkshire Core Components

» Two Roles
  - Named Person
  - Lead Professional

» Single Agency Assessments and Plans
  - Well-Being Screening Tool
  - What I Think Tool
  - My World Triangle Assessment
  - Single Agency Chronology
  - Outcome Plan

» Integrated Assessments and the Child’s Plan
  - My World Triangle Assessment
  - Resilience Matrix
  - Integrated Chronology
  - Integrated Outcome Plan

» Request for Assistance

» Informed Consent
Thank you for listening!

» Mairi.tulbure@southlanarkshire.gov.uk

» www.girfecinlanarkshire.co.uk